"GOD DEFEND NEW ZEALAND"

God of Nations at Thy feet
In the bonds of love we meet
Hear our voices we entreat
God defend our free land

E Ihowa, Atua
O Nga Iwi O te Ao
Ata whakarongona
Me aroha noa

Guard Pacific's triple star
From the shafts of strife and war
Make her praises heard afar
God defend New Zealand

Kia hua ko te pai
Kia tau to atawhai
Manaakitia mai
Aotearoa

"GAUDEAMUS"

Gaudeamus igitur juvenes dum sumus
Gaudeamus igitur juvenes dum sumus
Post jocundam juventutem
Post molestam senectutem
Nos habebit humus, nos habebit humus

KHAN AMEER MD.YOUSUF

Ameer has been at the University of Waikato since 1990. Prior to the MBA he did a Bachelor of Social Science. During his study period at Waikato Ameer was involved with the Waikato Student Union where he held the office of Vice-President Administration for one year. Ameer is planning to stay in New Zealand in order to pursue his future career.

ALAN RICHARDS

Alan is the Managing Director of AR & WE Richards Ltd. He was born in Westport, New Zealand and currently resides in Rotorua. Alan's background is in the heavy engineering industry, marine, cement and pulp and paper. He has found the IMBA both an enormous challenge and a wonderful opportunity, which has provided him with skills that will serve him for a lifetime. Alan's success within the programme would not have been possible without the love and support of his wife Wendy and their four children.

BRIAN SLEATH

After many years traversing the wilderness of management, working at many occupations, Brian's path eventually led to the source of all enlightenment, Executive Education at the University of Waikato. There Brian found the answer to the ultimate question of life the universe and everything was not 42 but an MBA - a qualification that gives a new meaning to life. There he met fellow travellers, discussed at length management philosophy, gained much knowledge and built friendships that will endure at least until they part. An enjoyable interlude from the real world that cannot help but change his life for the better.

KAYE TURNER

Kaye has taught in the School of Law at the University of Waikato since February 1991. Her previous degrees are in law and politics. Kaye thanks the School of Law and the University for the opportunity to take the MBA programme. She is delighted to become the first academic staff member of the University to complete the Waikato MBA degree.

DECHAN WANGMO

Dechan graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce (Hons) degree from the University of Delhi (India) in 1986. She was employed by the Royal Institute of Management as a Trainee Officer from 1987 to 1988. In 1989 she joined the Department of Budget and Aid Co-ordination (Ministry of Finance) where she has been working ever since as an Assistant Finance Officer. On completion of her MBA she intends to join up with the same office for a year and a half and then hopes to look for a job in another department where she can best use the skills she has acquired in her MBA. The International MBA has equipped Dechan to face the ever changing corporate environment and she has found it to be a great learning experience.

SEAN WONG

Sean finds his previous professional training and years of practical experience in senior level management are great assets, but the knowledge and skills he acquired more than three decades ago would not be adequate for a good management consultant today. The International MBA programme has enlightened him on the latest knowledge, technique and skills for the 21st century strategic business management, particularly on a global basis.

IAN WRIGHT

After spending the last ten years of his life as a self employed farmer involved also in outdoor education and athletics promotions, Ian has found the MBA a very enriching experience. Ian intends to now use the skills he has acquired to develop a new business and career that incorporates marketing and promotions concepts.

In 1993 Allister graduated from the Auckland Technical Institute with a New Zealand Certificate in Engineering. He is currently completing a Bachelor of Engineering at the Auckland University.

LORELEI KING CHAMBERS

Lorelei has worked for Inland Revenue for ten and a half years and is currently a Supervisor in the Taxpayer Services area. In the last two years she has been involved in projects investigating the introduction of "teams" within IRD, which she has found very interesting. She is continuing with business studies part-time at Waikato Polytechnic.

DOREEN LANDRUM

Doreen was born in 1938 in St Helen's Lancashire England where she attended Cowley Girls' Grammar School. In 1957 Doreen married Bill and they have four children and ten grandchildren in 1970 the family emigrated to New Zealand. Doreen joined the Foundation for the Blind in 1987 as Assistant Regional Manager (Wellington) and in 1993 she was promoted to Manager of the Waikato Bay of Plenty Region.

IVY O'DONOGHUE

Ivy worked in Kuala Lumpur and Brunei before coming to New Zealand. She has worked in Hamilton as an Insurance Sales Representative for eight years before deciding to pursue further education.

PAUL READ

Apart from surfing, skiing and generally indulging in "off the wall" sports, Paul is slowly (very very slowly) establishing a Marketing and Management Consultancy Business within the Hospitality Industry. Prior to this Paul was a tutor with the Ambulance Service in Tauranga. Now once again, he has no life as he flounders his way through the IMBA Programme!

ALANA SAVAGE

Alana is working at Computerland Training Centre as a full time Computer Consultant Trainer. She found the Diploma in Management Studies was instrumental in securing her current position. Alana has also found the marketing skills taught to be of great use in advertising, accounting and human resource management. Alana is currently undertaking a Boat Masters Course at the Polytechnic, and may be looking at a Marketing and Statistics Course next year

GORDON SELL

Gordon gained an A bursary from Kawerau College and graduated from Waikato University with a Bachelor of Computing and Mathematical Science. While at university Gordon was a member of the tramping club and a course representative in 1992 and 1993. He is currently employed by Telecom as an Analyst Programmer.

JANETTE SIMMONS

Janette holds a Senior Position in the Department of Conservation, Hamilton, with current responsibilities for public awareness and special projects requiring strategic thinking, research analysis and a multi-disciplinary approach. She has a keen interest in the environment and is also active in community affairs, chairing a number of local committees and organising events and activities. Janette is continuing with University study on a part-time basis.
